Islamophobia is voiced very strongly in global and religion politics.

Terrorism has become serious misconception about Islam. As was a result, Muslims were subjected to different forms of discrimination including hatred and unrest in the society.

b) Clash of Civilization:

The "clash of civilization" has also intensified the hate against Muslims.

In his 1993 Foreign Affairs article, Prof. Huntington argued that "Islam and West are opposite and irreconcilable".

In the previous years, the world witnessed clashes between Muslims and the west.

c) Western Media portraying negative image of Islam:

Western media has played the central role in Islamophobia. Media was took turned for the worst since the 9/11 terrorists attack in the USA. As a result, muslims faced serious discrimination in different forms.

This has been blamed on manipulation and misrepresentation of actual facts by media particularly in the North America, Britain and Europe.

d) Islamophobia, a challenge for Muslim Ummah:

Media representation of Muslims has a significant impact on how the public perceives Islam and Muslims.

Muslim Scholars and Media should highlight the fact that Islam is a religion of peace. Encouraging critical thinking and media literacy skills can help people to recognize and reject harmful stereotypes and misinformation about Islam. Raising awareness and educating people about the diversity of the Muslim community, their beliefs and their contributions to society can help to dispel stereotypes and myths.

iv) Conclusions:

It is crucial that we continue to address and combat Islamophobia for the well-being of muslim community and for the promotion of a more inclusive and equitable society. Islamophobia has a detrimental impact on the lives of muslim individuals and communities and it undermines the principles of equality, justice and human rights.
